

I do not feel New Jersey's Do Not Call law should be weakened. I for one get very annoyed by telemarketers and I'm very happy not receiving any of these useless calls. They are a waste of my time. Whenever I received a call from one of these people before I signed up for the Do Not Call program I'd slam the phone down in anger. I'd rather not have to go through that again. Thank you.